WIEN

Certified International Property Specialist
New York Real Estate Salesperson Certificate

Over the last years, I have helped many a client from different international organizations and companies navigate the complex and intricate process of finding a home.

As a former resident of New York City for 13 years, where I worked in Real Estate as well, I have assisted persons from all over the world to relocate and find an appropriate living situation to meet their requirements. Moving to the U.S. from my native Austria, forever gave me the experience that each of my new and future clients go through when they move to Vienna.

My deep understanding of my client's individual needs combined with my positive, attentive demeanor make this an enjoyable journey for everyone involved.

It would be my pleasure to help any of your new employees with their home search in Vienna.

Best regards,

Sabine Nanni

Ms. Sonia Alvarez Cibanal, Diplomat

“ When you have to move to another country with your whole family, time becomes a scarce resource and your family looks forward to getting installed the sooner the better. Ms. Sabine Nanni, from Hubner Immobilien, understood it perfectly well since the first moment. She was capable of understanding what we were looking for and what our family needed. She was quick and highly professional. She showed us only those houses which met our requirements. Whenever we asked her for more information, advice or support, she answered us in a short lapse of time. Finally, once we found our home, she stood by us helping and assessing us through all the last details. For these reasons, we can assert that Ms. Sabine Nanni will be of great help for anyone with family moving to Vienna in the near future. “

“ Ms. Nanni is the ideal real estate agent to use for an international relocation to Vienna. She found us an apartment that matched all of our needs on the very first try, and we were able to move in within two weeks in a city where a half-year wait to enter an apartment is not uncommon. She even helped negotiate some minor repairs in German. We very strongly recommend her. “
